12. What are the major strengths/benefits of this course?

Below are some representative comments:

Some reflections Professor Rose made and helped us make are great. Advice on speech skills is quite necessary and important.
Benefits: take vedios of our oral presentation, take notes of our classmates' presentation.
Maybe giving me courage
We can speak freely in class.
To help us know about the importance of group work and help us practice oral English.
This course can offer a limitless stage for me to express my ideas, with increasing critical thinking and the help of teamwork.
We are led to really think about how to improve the way we present our speech under careful instruction.
Courage, fluency, and teamwork

12. What are the major strengths/benefits of this course?

Below are some representative comments:

Different way of thinking. How to defend for your own opinions. How to cooperate effectively and efficiently with others.
Critical thinking skills, try to accept different ideas.
To get individuals into groups and work as a team, which helps us to communicate more effectively.
To assign us to write journals to reflect on ourselves; to give us the opportunity to discuss and debate on the case which helps us think critically
Help students learn to get along with people of different personalities. Help students think more and speak out themselves and get to know the society.
